ABORTION—DEFINING SAME AND PROVIDING PUNISHMENT.

H. B. No. 140.]

CHAPTER XXXIII.

An Act to amend Article 641 of the Penal Code of the State of Texas, relating to abortion, and defining the meaning of that term, and providing punishment for those guilty of the offense of abortion as defined.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Article 641. If any person shall designedly administer to a pregnant woman, or knowingly procure to be administered with her consent, any drug or medicine, or shall use toward her any violence, or means whatever, externally or internally applied, and shall thereby procure an abortion, he shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years; if it be done without her consent, the punishment shall be doubled.

By the term "abortion" is meant that the life of the fetus or embryo shall be destroyed in the woman's womb, or that a premature birth thereof be caused.

SEC. 2. The fact that Article 641 of the Penal Code, which relates to the offense of abortion, does not define said offense, and is therefore inoperative, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house, should be, and is hereby suspended, and that this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Approved March 20, 1907.

Takes effect ninety days after adjournment.
